

TMEF 50/50 Auction

The Thomas Marshall Education Fund is organising a 50/50 charity auction to be held in St. Bartholomew's Church on Saturday 24th October 2015. We are delighted that James Neal from Neal Sons & Fletcher will be wielding the gavel at what is expected to be a very exciting and enjoyable evening.

If you are having a de-clutter or have household items you just don't want anymore, you can raise funds for yourself and TMEF at the same time.

All proceeds will be divided between the providers of the lots and the Thomas Marshall Education Fund.

If you have items of value that you wish to enter into the auction, lots may be delivered to the church during the day on Friday 23rd October. Each individual lot must be described on an auction entry form (on the reverse of this notice) which must be submitted to the organisers at least 5 days before the auction to allow the catalogue to be produced.

Sorry, we cannot accept electrical items or large furniture.

Viewing will be between 10.00am and 3.00pm on Saturday 24th with bidding starting at 6.00pm. There will be a licensed bar from 5.00pm.

At the auction, if your item(s) sell you will receive 50% of the sale price if you wish to. TMEF reserves the right to sell below your reserve price as long as the resulting price is equal to not less than 50% of your reserve price plus a £10 commission for TMEF. You will receive 50% of the reserve price in this case.

All items to be paid for and collected on the day.

All unsold items can be collected from the church after the auction. Any unsold items not collected within 7 days will be disposed of at the discretion of TMEF and any proceeds for the disposal will be handled as if the items had been sold in the auction.

For more information contact Wendy Marshall on 01394 450090.
